FUNNY BONE

25 pearls of wisdom

If you're too open minded, your brains will fall out. Age is a high price for maturity.

Going to church doesn't make you a Christian any more than going to a garage makes you a mechanic. Artificial intelligence is no match for natural stupidity. If you must choose between two evils, pick the one you have never tried before. My idea of housework is to sweep the room with a glance. Not one shred of evidence supports the notion that life is serious. It is easier to get forgiveness than permission. For every action, there is an equal and opposite government programme. If you look like your passport picture, you probably need the trip. Bills travel through the post at twice the speed of cheques. A conscience is what hurts when all your other parts feel so good.

Eat well, stay fit, die anyway. Men are from Earth. Women are from Earth. Deal with it. No husband has ever been shot while doing the dishes. A balanced diet is a biscuit in each hand. Opportunities always look bigger going than coming. Middle age is when broadness of mind and narrowness of the waist change places. Junk is something you've kept for years and throw away three weeks before you need it. There is always one more imbecile than you counted on. Experience is a wonderful thing. It enables you to recognise a mistake when you make it again. By the time you can make ends meet, they move the ends. Thou shalt not weigh more than thy refrigerator. Someone who thinks logically provides a nice contrast to the real world. Blessed are they who can laugh at themselves for they shall never cease to be amused.

Gastroenterologist joins MRHC

specializing in the treatment of diseases of the gastrointestinal tract and liver. Michael Grossman, MD, began seeing patients this week at McAlester Regional Health Center's Southeast Clinic, but has been meeting with fellow doctors in the region as well. "Some of the more common ailments I see are IBS (Irritable Bowel Syndrome), ulcers, heartburn or acid reflux, and liver disease," Dr. Grossman said. "But I also perform diagnostic and therapeutic upper and lower scopes for issues such as biopsies or polyps, and ERCP (endoscopic retrograde cholangiopancreatography of the bile duct to detect stones." A graduate of George Washington University and

New York University, he earned his medical doctorate from Howard University and completed his internship and residency in internal medicine at Veterans Administration Hospital in Washington D.C. He completed his fellowship as a gastroenterologist at the Veterans Administration Hospital before joining the US Air Force Hospital at Tinker AFB as Chief of the Department of Medicine. Most recently, Dr. Grossman worked at Deaconess Hospital in Oklahoma City and he is a clinical professor of medicine at Oklahoma University's School for Health Sciences. The new specialist is now taking appointments at Southeast Clinic on the MRHC Campus. For an appointment, call 918-421-6846 or visit his office at 2 Clark Bass Blvd., Suite 301. # Domestic Violence

The McAlester Police Department responds to Domestic Violence calls on a daily basis. Many times when our officers arrive, we get very little cooperation. This is generally due to one party being scared or not wanting to get the other in trouble. These types of relationships can then escalate and have a very bad ending, leaving one party in jail and the other in the hospital. Domestic violence is domestic abuse that includes physical violence. It is not limited to just one form of abuse. Domestic violence may also include sexual abuse, emotional abuse, psychological abuse, financial abuse, and stalking. It is vital that you have as much information as possible and are aware of the seriousness of domestic violence. Abusers are fully aware and in control of what they are saying and doing. When an abuser is in a rage and friends come by, suddenly everything is fine. Abusers don't beat on their girlfriend just because the abuser is drunk, tired, hungry, or stressed. Why is your abuser beating on you? Abusers are abusive to gain and maintain total control over you and the situation. Some of the abuse is spontaneous, and some of it is premeditated. Getting out alive will require some premeditated planning, but also spontaneous thinking and action on your part. Abusers will tell you what their intentions are, in the form of a threat. It is your responsibility to believe your abuser. Your life and the lives of your children depend on it. Knowing the domestic violence cycle will help you understand what is going on in your relationship with your abuser. As you look at this cycle, I hope you can look at it from your abuser's point of view and remember that your abuser's only purpose in abusing you is to gain and maintain total control over you! This is NOT your fault! The domestic violence cycle has three phases; Tension building: As hard as you try, nothing you do is right or good enough. Please be careful and try to defuse any situations. This is the time when your abuser wants to gain, or maintain control and is setting things up for the next phase of this cycle. Battering: Every victim's scariest moment. Again try hard to defuse the situation, and be careful!! Leaving is the most dangerous moment in a domestic violence situation, if you think you will live through this moment, plan to leave during the next phase. Otherwise, call the police now!! Honeymoon: Your abuser may apologize, or blame you for what just took place in the previous phase. The abuser will act like things are normal, or be extra nice to insure that you won't report the abuse. The abuser may start making plans for something you have wanted, plans for the family, plans for the future...whatever the abuser thinks will keep you in this relationship. Please know that the Honeymoon Phase is the safest phase to secretly start getting your ducks in a row and make a plan so you can safely leave. These three phases are in a continual cycle. You may be telling yourself that your loved one didn't mean to hurt you and didn't mean the words that were said. Would you treat, or talk to a loved one that way? Would you treat, or talk to anyone that way? If your answer is, "no!" then do not excuse the words and actions that were directed at you. This is a control issue. In my experience and what I have heard from others as this cycle continues, it progressively gets worse to maintain control. This cycle does not get better. You need to take care of yourself and your children. Start making a safety plan now to get out of this situation. Some information contained in this article was taken from policeone.com On domestic calls in McAlester the Officer will ask the victim several questions on a form that is called a lethality assessment. If there are yes answers to the threat of further violence then an advocate is called on the phone at the scene and the victim has a chance to get immediate assistance. The form is then attached to the Police report. I am the Community Services Officer, Jeremy Busby. If you are in need of Child Safety Programs, Fraud Prevention programs, or would like us to set up an information booth at your community event, the programs are free and you can contact me at (918) 423-9657 or jeremy.busby@cityofmalester.com. If you have any information regarding a crime, contact the McAlester Police Departments Criminal Investigations Division at (918)421-4917 or Email don.hass@cityofmalester.com. You may remain anonymous. To report any other criminal activity, contact the McAlester Police Department at (918)423-1212 or if it is an Emergency dial 911.

Remember, October is Domestic Violence Awareness Month. If you know someone that is being abused or you are being abused, contact your local police or sheriff's department or call The National Domestic Abuse Hotline at 1(800)799-SAFE(7233). Stay Safe and God Bless

Food and Agriculture Co-op Income Again Sets Record in 2015, USDA Data Show

Net income for the nation's agricultural cooperatives soared by 14 percent last year, according to data released today by the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). In its annual report on national cooperative business sales, USDA reported that the country's farmer, rancher and fishery cooperatives posted record net income of $7 billion in 2015. "The cooperative business model continues to perform strongly," Agriculture Secretary Tom Vilsack said. "While the model has long been one of the hallmarks of rural economies, its reach has greatly expanded to include almost every aspect of U.S. commerce. The latest data show that cooperatives are a key to building stronger and more vital communities, particularly in rural areas."

the Top 100 ag cooperatives on Vilsack's behalf at an Interagency Working Group on Cooperative Development meeting at the Department of Commerce. The group, which is led by USDA, was established to foster cooperative development and ensure coordination between federal agencies and national and local organizations.

Again, this year's list shows that Iowa is home to more Top 100 co-ops than any other state, with 15. It is followed by Minnesota with 11 and Nebraska with nine. California and Illinois each have six, while Wisconsin has five. Minnesota and California each gained new co-op in the Top 100 in 2015. USDA indicated that total business volume fell for the Top 100 cooperatives, from $177 billion in 2014 to $149 billion in 2015. However, net income rose from $4.3 billion to $4.9 billion in 2015, an increase of 14 percent. CHS Inc., a fuel, grain and food cooperative based in Inver Grove Heights, Minn., remains the nation's largest cooperative in the United States, with $34.7 billion in total business volume for 2015. Dairy Farmers of America, a milk marketing cooperative based in Kansas City, Mo., came in second place, with $13.9 billion in total revenue. Land O'Lakes, a dairy foods and farm supply co-op, based in Saint Paul, Minn., was third, with $13.1 billion in sales. The biggest 'gainer' on the list from 2014 was Producers Livestock Marketing Association, based in North Salt Lake, Utah. It rose from 90th place in 2014 to 58th place. Cooperatives big and small continue to play a key role in creating vibrant rural economies. In 2012-2013, the Montana Cooperative Development Center helped the Big Flat Market Cooperative steering committee with its incorporation process and business planning. The result of this hard work is the Big Flat Grocery store, now open in rural Turner, Mont., near the Canadian border. The release of the co-op Top 100 report comes as USDA celebrates National Cooperative Month throughout October. This year's theme is "Cooperatives Build." Secretary Vilsack kicked off the month-long celebration with an official proclamation. Since 2009, USDA Rural Development (@USDARDThis is an external link or third-party site outside of the United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) website.) has invested nearly $13 billion to start or expand nearly 112,000 rural businesses; helped bring high-speed Internet access to nearly 6 million rural residents and businesses; helped 1.1 million rural residents buy homes; and funded nearly 9,200 community facilities such as schools, public safety and health care facilities.

USDA also has invested $31.3 billion in 963 electric projects that have financed more than 185,000 miles of transmission and distribution lines serving 4.6 million rural residents. For more information, visit www.usda.gov/results. To read more about USDA's

Former Chesapeake Exec Lands Leadership Position at Swift Energy

Former Chesapeake Energy executive Marcus Rowland has taken over as chairman of the board of Houston-based Swift Energy Company. Rowland previously had been the Chief Financial Officer at Chesapeake Energy and his term as chairman will expire in 2019. The company said his appointment followed the retirement of CEO Terry Earl Swift and CFO Alton Heckaman Jr. in August.

Swift held the CEO title since 2001 and was board chairman since 2016. He has more than 40 years experience in the oil and gas sector.

"Rowland brings a wealth of relevant industry and operating experience to the company, highlighted by his current leadership role as found and senior managing director of IOG Capital and as the former executive vice president and chief financial officer of Chesapeake Energy Corporation," said Michael Duginski, chairman of Swift Energy's nomination and strategy committee. "His industry insights and leadership will be invaluable as we move the company forward."

This is for Sound Off! Well the Gore's really got punished for all of the ripping off and taking vacations and taking the money in my opinion. I have a question though? How in the world did it cost $65,000 for that 12x20 band room? Any contractor would charge $6,000 on it. No one wanted to cover it, though I had a personal conversation to ask why? A contractor from Ada did it because nobody here would? Doesn't make sense.

Ok, the people driving around the school buses, occasions. They can serve beer at any event, Armed Forces Day Parade! Why not, next thing you know the town drunks won't have far to go to get a drink. Why would the city want to do this, it's for tax money. They don't care about what happens to the town, it's about tax money. Everyone pack up and leave before they need to be voted out or run out. It is a shame it took three hours to discuss a beer garden. Why not have topless waitresses! How far will this be from the churches? Sober up and vote right! This is my opinion.

If it looks a little dark over OSP way, it is because we have about 50 lights out and I don't know when they will get them fixed.

Oklahoma Farm Bureau President Tom Buchanan and

attorney Bud Scott with Oklahoman's for Food, Farm & Family debated the merits of State Question 777 on Wednesday at the Norman Chamber of Commerce luncheon. Tom Buchanan said "Compelling state interest. I wish that language weren't in there," Buchanan said. "Not because it's bad language — it's constitutional language that has been defined in case law and case history." This is Smoke to cover up bad language in order to confuse voters in thinking they are supporting farmers, where in fact it is not helping the farmers at all. How can you endorse sq777 and make statements like these? This is amending the state constitution! Local attorney and Ward 4 City Council member Bill Hickman questioned the language. He said it would make it too difficult to prove a case for protecting Oklahomans' health and safety. While we can all support farmers and ranchers in Oklahoma, we can simultaneously all oppose bad policy," Scott said, speaking for the opposition. "State Question 777 is bad policy. Please vote No to Sq777.

Our family is new to the area. I have to say that we came downtown for the Homecoming parade. The community spirit we witnessed gave us the assurance we made the right move. Thank you McAlester.

Thank you city leaders for finally moving forward with progress. We have lost many opportunities due to codes and restrictions. Now that some are being revised we look forward to the growth potential in the area.

I love the new bicycle racks downtown, they look great!

I want to give a shout out to the man and woman who had a massive argument in front of my home. Here's a tip: I could care less about your issues. Keep them in private.

ASTROLOGY UPDATE

ARIES (Mar. 21 - April 20) Take some time out. You will be looking for creative ways to make a little extra cash. Look for professional guidance if it will help unite the family.

TAURUS (Apr. 21 - May 21) Your self esteem will benefit. Friends will be loyal and caring. Your ideas are good and career moves can be realized. You don't owe anyone an explanation. Do your own thing, you need time to yourself.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21) You need a change of pace. Concern yourself with legal matters and formulating contracts rather than finalizing your objectives. You can enjoy social events and meet new potential mates; however, avoid being lavish.

CANCER (June 22 - July 22) Colleagues may try to undermine you. A little rest will do wonders. You will be ready to jump on anyone who gets in the way of your progress today.

LEO (July 23 - Aug 22) Your bankbook will suffer and your restrictions will put a damper on your relationship. Visit those less fortunate than your self; be sure to help them with their personal problems. Put your time and energy into travel, philosophy, and soul-searching.

VIRGO (Aug. 23 - Sept. 23) You will want to complain about the injustice that is going on. You may find yourself caught in a triangle. Think hard before going into business with friends or family.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23) Romance could develop through social activities or short trips. You will be able to make favorable changes in your living quarters. Contracts will not be as lucrative as you think.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22) You are best to do your research before taking on such a venture. You should sit down with someone you trust and work out a budget that will enable you to save a little extra. You may need a physical outlet that will help you relieve your tension.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21) You need to be around friends and family. You should consider submitting some of your written work for publication. You will not impress others by being foolishly generous.

CAPRICORN (Dec 22 - Jan. 20) Don't make promises that you can't possibly keep. Residential changes, renovations, or moves are likely to disrupt your routine. Moneymaking ventures may just turn your life around.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19) You won't be admired at home if you haven't been taking care of your share of the work. A new image can be the result if you change your look. Children may be demanding, and entertainment could cost a lot more than you can really afford.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20) Put your thoughts into action. Get on with your life. Encourage the youngsters in your family.
